Alicant, Sept. 7. N. S.

ADmiral Aylmer, with the Squadron of English Men of War under his Command, arrived here yesterday in 21 days from Genoua; He saluted the Town with 13 Guns, and a like number was returned. This afternoon the Governor of this Place visited the Admiral on board his Ship. The said Squadron will sail from hence in few days for Cadiz.

Cadiz, Septemb. 14. The Penzance Man of War Capt. Wyat Commander, arrived here the 4th Instant, and sailed again the same day to join the Squadron of Men of War commanded by Admiral Aylmer. On the 8th, 10th, and 11th Instant, several Merchant Ships came in here from England, and sailed again yesterday for the Streights. This morning the Betty Man of War, commanded by Captain Lambert, put in here from cruizing. Monsieur de Relingue continues in this Port with 5 French Men of War.

Corunna, Octob. 10. We have Letters from Madrid of the 30th past, which give an Account, that the King and Queen of Spain were gone to the Escurial. The Countess of Berlips will not begin her Journey to Vienna till the Court is returned to Madrid, which may be about the beginning of the next month. We have received Advice from Cadiz of the 20th of September last, that Admiral Aylmer with the Squadron under his Command was arrived there, and would sail in 4 or 5 days for England; and that the Spaniards are raising 400 Soldiers in those Parts, with a design to send them to the West-Indies. The Spanish Alliance Pacquet-boat arrived here last night with one Mail from Falmouth.

Venice, October 3. The Senate have chosen Signior Girolamo Duodo to go as Ambassador from this Republick to the Court of Spain, in the room of Signior Aluisio Mocenigo, who is recalled from that Employment, having accomplished the usual term of 3 years, which is appointed by the Republick for their Ambassadors to continue abroad. The three German Regiments which lately returned hither from the Morea having perform'd their Quarantaine, are come from the Lazaret to the Lido, and several Vessels lie there ready to transport them to Verona, from whence they are to march to Germany. Our last Advices from Dalmatia give an Account, that the Conferences for settling the Limits are continued by the Venetian and Turkish Commissioners with good Success, the Limits being already settled from the Sea-shore as far as Cettina. These Letters add, that the Germans do still keep Possession of the County of Lecca, and that the Proveditore of Clin had caused the Chevalier Sinibaldi, who commanded in the Castle of Zuonigrad, to be secured, for having delivered the same to them without making any Defence. Our last Letters from Smyrna say, part of the Grand Signior's Seraglio was arrived at Constantinople, and that he himself was expected there by the middle of August last.

Warsaw, Sept. 29. The Cardinal Primate continues at Radzieowsky, expecting the return of the Express he sent to Germany, to acquaint the King of Poland with the Agreement lately concluded between him and the Resident of Brandenburgh, about the Business of Elbing; And in the mean time he has writ to several Senators that are gone into the Country, desiring them to return hither, because he intends, as soon as he has received the King's Approbation of the said Agreement, to assemble the Senate to consider of proper Methods to raise the Sum of Money that is in pursuance thereof to be paid to the Elector of Brandenburgh. We have received an Account from Lemberg, that the Turks having removed all their Artillery, Baggage, and Ammunition from Caminiec, the Bassa of that Place writ a very obliging Letter to the Commissioners of Poland, who continue encamped near that Place with the Troops they design to put in Garrison there, thanking them for having assisted him and his Garrison with Men and Horses in the removing of their Goods, and assuring them that he will march out of Caminiec upon the first Notice he shall receive, that the Turks are put in Possession of the Fortresses on the Borders of Moldavia which the Polanders are to restore to them. The Crown General continues at Lemberg, and has assigned the several Quarters for the Army of Poland; and the Troops, who are encamped on that Frontier, will begin to march thither as soon as Caminiec is delivered up to the Polanders.

Stockholm, Octob. 3. The King of Swedem and the Duke of Holstein having reviewed the Forces quartered in several Parts of this Kingdom, are returned hither. A Placaet has been published here, for laying a Tax on all the Subjects of this Crown according to their several Abilities, which will bring in a very considerable Sum. Four Regiments of Foot are marched from the Neighbourhood of this Place to Carelscroone, in order to be transported from thence to Pomerania; They are to embark on the 12th Instant, and a Squadron of Men of War under the Command of Vice-Admiral Rosenvelt are ordered to convoy them.

Copenhagen, Octob. 10. The time of the King of Denmark's departure from hence for the Dutchy of Holstein is yet uncertain. In the mean time the new Levies are continued, and the Commanders of the Danish Forces have received Orders to add 10 Men to each Company of Foot and Troop of Horse; 'Tis said, Directions are also given for equipping 14 Men of War, besides the 12 Frigats which were before ordered to be fitted out. The King has made Brigadier Grisdorfe Major-General of his Troops in the Kingdom of Norway. The Duke of Wirtemberg is gone from hence, to review the Danish Forces that are quartered in Zealand.

Vienna, October 3. The Ministers of this Court are frequently assembled, to consider of the present Condition of the Emperor's Revenues, and of the Means to raise the necessary Sums to supply the present Occasions, and they have resolved to farm out several Branches of his Revenue. The Count de Denhoff, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Brandenburgh, has had his Audiences of Leave of the Emperor and Empress, of the King and Queen of the Romans, and of the Arch-Duke and Arch-Dutchesses, and intends in few days to return to Berlin. The 1st Instant being the Arch-Dukes Birthday,
